FAQ

How long will my house purchase take?

This will depend on a number of factors but on average, the process takes between 6 – 10 weeks.

It can be quicker or slower, depending on the circumstances and the parties in the chain.

For example, if you are a first time buyer, purchasing an existing property with a mortgage in principle and no chain it could take as little as 6 weeks. However, if you are buying a leasehold flat that requires an extension of the lease term, this can take significantly longer. In such a situation additional charges would apply.

Stages of the process (Purchase)

The precise stages involved in the purchase of a residential property vary according to the circumstances. However, below we have provided an outline of a typical transaction:

- 1. We take your initial instructions and provide you with initial advice
- 2. We carry out initial checks and contact your lender, sellers solicitor and estate agent, if needed
- 3. We receive contract documents from the sellers solicitor and advise you on the terms
- 4. We carry out compulsory searches and any additional searches you require (the results are usually returned within 2 weeks)
- 5. We obtain further documentation if required from the sellers solicitor, local authority or in some cases landlord/management company or other third party
- 6. We raise any necessary enquiries of seller's solicitor
- 7. We advise you on all documents and information received and explain any outstanding matters
- 8. We explain the conditions of mortgage offer including any specific requirements
- 9. We send the final contract and other documents to you for signature or we arrange an appointment for you to attend and sign with us at one of our offices
- 10. We agree a completion date with you, your seller and your mortgage lender (this is the date from which you own the property) and advise on the steps to be taken by you before and on the day of completion

- 11. We exchange contracts (legally committing you to the purchase) and notify you that this has happened
- 12. We arrange for all monies needed to be received from your mortgage lender and you
- 13. We complete the purchase and you receive the keys
- 14. We deal with payment of Stamp Duty Land Tax and submit a return with HM Revenue and customs on your behalf
- 15. We seal with the application for registration at HM Land Registry
